ABOUT RACE REFLECTIONS

RETHINKING INEQUALITY, INJUSTICE AND OPPRESSION

DISRUPTIVE ARTICLES AND THINK PIECES

It is Race Reflections content that propelled Director, Guilaine Kinouani's leadership when it comes to understanding and addressing inequality, injustice and oppression. There are over 100 articles on the Race Reflections website written by Guilaine Kinouani and a growing library from the community of thinkers that pitch for our platform 'Guest Reflections', a collection of musings, reflections and academic pieces from marginalised individuals. Each month, a new piece is added to the collection. These articles are in the main, restricted to our members.

SUPPORTIVE MEMBERSHIPS

We offer a range of members-only support which includes access to restricted content, capacity building, coaching, workshops and consultations for individuals as well as cost-effective developmental support for organisations.

CUTTING EDGE E-LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

We launched our own online learning series, on the Thinkific platform which turns Race Reflections challenging and disruptive content into practical, actionable and engaging e-courses, for more information click here.

IMPACTFUL LEARNING & TRAINING

Outside of our membership agreements and with over 15 years of experience, we continue to offer expert training and consultation to organisations that are aligned with our vision and committed to tackling inequality, injustice and oppression.

JOIN THE MAILING LIST

If you would like to be the first to know about all of our events and membership offers, why not join the mailing list? Doors will be open to new members in Autumn 2023.

WHAT IS THE MASTERCLASS SERIES?

WHITE MINDS MASTERCLASS SERIES

Guilaine Kinouani's long-awaited second book- White Minds is coming out in Autumn 2023.

Join Race Reflections and Guilaine Kinouani for the first-ever, in-person event. To celebrate the community that has made the social enterprise's success possible, and to mark the pre-launch of Head Disruptor and Director - Guilaine Kinouani's second book - White Minds, we are inviting Race Reflections members and the wider community to join us for a day of masterclasses on whiteness.

The day boasts masterclasses, (with special guests) delivering teachings on the ultimate ways to unearth, understand and dismantle white supremacy, led by none other than Guilaine Kinouani herself.

The event will take place in London, at Indra Studios, Hackney Wick, on Friday, 15th of September 2023.

MASTERCLASS OVERVIEW

AT A GLANCE

WHITENESS TIME AND SPACE

11.00 AM - 12.30 PM

GENDER AND WHITENESS

13.30 PM - 15.00 PM

PROXIMAL DYNAMICS

15.30PM - 17.00 PM

In this series of masterclasses, Guilaine will present some of the key themes of White Minds. Each of the master classes is therefore centred around a chapter from the forthcoming book and will include resistance strategies.

DETAILED MASTERCLASS DESCRIPTIONS

RETHINKING INEQUALITY, INJUSTICE AND OPPRESSION

WHITENESS TIME AND SPACE

11.00 AM - 12.30 PM

Masterclass one will consider the relationship between whiteness time and space. In particular, the recurrent embodied sense of stuckness the racialised other experiences when it comes to racialised violence will be put under sharp focus.

13.30 PM - 15.00 PM

The second masterclass will consider the relationship between gender and whiteness. It will look at the constructions of both systems as well as their intersections with racialised violence. In particular, the role of white womanhood in the upholding of white patriarchy will be explored.

PROXIMAL DYNAMICS

The final masterclass will focus on what Guilaine terms 'proximal dynamics' which refer to the ambivalent relationship those with proximity to power (here, whiteness) have with both liberation and supremacism. We'll consider the rationale for these dynamics, how they may express themselves and their role in the structure of white supremacy.

The masterclasses will end at 17.00 followed by a short comfort break. An open space discussion on White Minds will commence at 17.30 pm until 18.30 pm. Attendees are then invited to join us for a party and celebratory drinks between 18.30 pm - 21.00 pm.
